Country Network

President's Message

Oh how time flies! Already the chill in the air warns of the winter just around the corner. The great time shared by all at Queenscliff has already blended into the many happy memories of past, similar events. Thanks to all participants who made the weekend the friendly success that it was. It was especially pleasing to see the obvious delight on the many new faces, as they shared in the camaraderie Country Network offers. This is but one reward for those who assisted as part of the work team that made it all happen.

The clock keeps ticking and all too soon the long weekend is over and we depart for our various homes spread all over the country. We arrive home and despite having a good time, before too long we are often wanting more. Being a national organisation, we must be patient and happy with the knowledge that we have met some wonderful men and the start of some rewarding friendships that will grow in time. So please follow up with your own contacts and further networking in the meantime.

Now the party rolls on to Perth this October, where the locals there will have the opportunity to host the rest of the nation. List your thoughts/plans with Conference Convener Ted Perth, or the message board to network with others who may share similar thoughts/plans.

Behind the scenes, Country Network continues to evolve as we try to keep pace with our growing organisation's needs and new networking technology. There are many great ideas flowing in; it seems that despite slowly ticking off items on our "wish list", this list grows longer. Some further changes to our administration foundations (soon to be completed) should allow for a larger volunteer team to operate more effectively and efficiently.

Despite our growth and increased needs and ideas, it is pleasing to see the continued harmony within the group. Our challenge is to maintain these high standards while we continue the growth. Keep up the good work.

A little love and affection in everything you do will make the world a better place, with or without you.

Neil

The Big 300

It is with much delight we can now welcome our 300th member to Country Network; Russell and Steve from Torquay (No.299 and 300). To celebrate this small milestone we extend to them an extra year's membership.

Of course, it took 299 existing members beforehand to allow a 300th member to come along. And so a big thanks to all members for helping with the growth to achieve this milestone.

Also, thanks to John of Mallacoota who was listed on their application as being "known to" them. As part of the celebration, John's membership is also extended an additional year as our thanks for introducing our 300th member.

Although we will always seek quality over quantity, we now march on towards 400.

John

From the Editor

Hi Everyone

I must apologise for the lateness of this Newsletter. Richard and I have been holidaying; relaxing at times; busy at times but enjoyable nevertheless.

We were able to take in the beauties of Victoria, the land of Handsome Men and ventured from the extreme south (Queenscliff) to Wodonga/Albury in the north and Bendigo, Macedon (Central West?), and Melbourne City.

Chasing cattle at Mitta Mitta, we were privileged to stay with our good friend—farmer Graeme, enjoying the beautiful country life around the Mitta Mitta, Bright and Yackandandah areas. Absolutely stunning with views of the mountains and the bush decked out in the autumn golds and reds.

Mitta Mitta

I know there will be other accolades used in other reports in this Newsletter but I have to say we really enjoyed the Autumn Camp at Queenscliff. Neil's usual flair for great organising with fantastic support from his helpers, made it a fun weekend. Although the weather was not always what one would hope, it didn't stop our enjoyment. Learnt a few new card games when it rained briefly, keeping us indoors. Gossip was great!!

The kitchen staff goes ferrel. Too much stirring the stir-fry sends you stir-crazy. (L to R.—Kevin, Robert, Colin and Kerin)

Hope to see you all in Perth for the AGM—24/27th October 2014.

Tracks

This tells the incredible true story of Robyn Davidson and her trip with four camels and one dog across the West Australian deserts in the 1970's.

Davidson wanted to do this “all on her own” and worked at various jobs (including the training of camels) to try to raise enough money for the journey. Finally she was offered finance by National Geographic on the basis that one of its staff would meet her periodically during her travel for photographs etc. This offer was reluctantly accepted by Davidson.

The story is a moving one. Mia Wasikowska portrays Davidson superbly, depicting her determination and occasional loneliness and despair. The vastness and beauty of the desert is a wonderful background.

The movie is well worth a visit.

Freier Fall (subtitled)

Marc is a Police Cadet—a married man and soon to be a father. He meets a new cadet, Kay (male), and the two men become close. Marc begins to realise desires that he never knew he had and the two men fall in love.

The strain of the affair creates problems in Marc's relationships with Kay and his wife respectively and the story moves to a sad conclusion.

This German film has been compared to “Brokeback Mountain” and I was moved by the film.

Romeo and Juliet

Is the latest production of the immortal tale of the ill-fated love between these two. It is a wonderful production and was shot in the actual streets of Verona (where the story is set) and other Italian cities.

I saw the movie with an academic friend who was of the opinion that the script stayed faithful to the play written by Shakespeare with one or two exceptions, which he felt was still very “Shakespearian”.

The play was adapted for the screen by Academy Award winner Julian Fellowes, who also scripts the very successful “Downton Abbey” series.

Wadjda (subtitled)

The central character is a 10 year old girl, Wadjda, who lives in Saudi Arabia and who wants a bike and is trying to get enough money, in a variety of ways, to buy one. This is in spite of the fact that the riding of bikes by females is prohibited; just as Wadjda's mother is not allowed to drive a car. The movie illustrates the repressive society in Saudi Arabia where women are concerned. There are also tensions between Wadjda's parents largely due to the fact that a son has not been born in the marriage.

The film can stand on its own merits, but what is remarkable about it is that it is the first film made in Saudi Arabia, where cinema has been banned for 30 years—and is directed by a Saudi Arabian woman!

I found the story very sad. Wadjda is an engaging character full of the enthusiasm of youth but I couldn't help but wonder for the future of such girls in the land of their birth.

The Monuments Men

The movie is based on fact. In 1943, when it was becoming clear that Germany was not going to win the war, the Nazis began to move stolen works of art from countries such as France and Belgium to hidden locations in Germany. If necessary, they were prepared to destroy priceless works of art rather than see them falling into the hands of the allied forces.

A team of servicemen was assembled to save and recover the artworks stolen by the Nazis and restore them to their rightful owners. The film depicts their efforts in this respect.

There is an inscription at the entrance to the National Museum in Kabul (Afghanistan) which states (as translated) “A nation stays alive when its culture stays alive”. Indeed, one of the lines in the movie expressed a very similar view.

I have to say that I was disappointed with this movie, which is directed by and stars George Clooney. I was expecting a serious approach to the story; instead it is largely played as a “big boys” adventure lark on the lines of “Oceans 11”.

The Grand Budapest Hotel

It is a very, very funny movie. It is a wonderful farce. The story revolves around Gustave H., the concierge of a famous European Hotel, and Zero Moustafa, the hotel's lobby boy, and is set in the 1930's. It involves the theft and recovery of a priceless painting.

The film stars, amongst many, Jude Law, Tom Wilkinson and Oscar winners, Tilda Swinton, F. Murray Abraham and Adrien Brody. The role of Gustave H. is marvellously played by Oscar nominee Ralph Fiennes.

There are many one-liners in the movie and I laughed again and again throughout the film.

AREA CO-ORDINATOR'S REPORT—TASMANIA

On 16th March, the Tassie Boys were able to extend some hospitality to 2 visitors from the Big Island; John from Mallacoota and Gary from Queensland. Gary is planning to spend twelve months exploring the Island in his motor home with his 2 small dogs. Grant rallied the troops—some of us enjoyed champers and nibbles at his Glebe abode, then wandered down the hill, over the highway to meet the others at The Tasmania Inn for dinner. Good old family roasts were delicious.

John enjoyed catching up with friends he'd met at other CN gatherings over the years. Great to see Peter mobile again after recent surgery. He and Dave were able to report that they are happily settled in their new home—as were Harry and Jeff. Guess downsizing is something most of us have to face sometime.

We were also able to welcome Rod to the fold. The evening was enjoyed by 16 happy Country Networkers.

MESSAGE FROM OUR EVENTS CO-ORDINATOR

Do you have an event that you want people in your area to know about. One of the ways that you can do this is to send me the information and I will put it on the events page of the Country Network website. As the events page is open to the public it is wise not to include information which may come back to bite you. It is best that personal addresses are not included and be careful with phone numbers and email addresses. Only include them if you are willing to take calls or emails from people enquiring about the occasion. This may not necessarily be from Country Network people. However, there needs to be a contact made available. You can use the events@countrynetwork.com.au if you do not have a contact on the message. I will forward any information on to the appropriate person.

So to all the area co-ordinators who wish to publicise events in your area please send me the information and I will put it on the website events page. It does not have to only be the co-ordinators that send events information. If you know of an appropriate event and wish to let people know about it then just forward the information. However, if you do plan an event, please also contact your Area Co-ordinator so he is aware.

It is now possible to email all Country Network members, be it all over Australia, or a specific area, and let them know or remind them of, events that are occurring. As this will only go to Country Network members, personal information can be included. Particularly in this case a contact person, phone number or email address. By this method we can keep all members posted on upcoming events, and overcome forgetfulness.

BUT, when you get an email from the events co-ordinator please do not just hit the REPLY ICON. 🙄🙄🙄 Your information needs to be sent to the appropriate person who is organising the event. And I, in most cases, will not be that person. However, if you do make a mistake and send it to me I will forward it on. Any personal bits of information, sent along with your reply to me, if you do just hit the reply icon, may be stored away for later use.

Send information to events@countrynetwork.com.au

STAR: Tab Hunter in a TV commercial in the 1960s.

Hunter is now 82 and living with his partner, Allan Glaser, in Montecito, northwest of Los Angeles. Hunter starred in more than 40 movies and his leading ladies included Sophia Loren, Natalie Wood, Rita Hayworth, Lana Turner, Debbie Reynolds and Kim Basinger. ## COFFEE MORNING IN PERTH CITY— SUNDAY 1ST JUNE

The gathering around the coffee pot will be as usual at Bocelli's Espresso, Forrest Place (at the base of the escalator) in the Murray Street Mall. Meet at 10.30 am.
[call Cliff on 0422 799 729 if you need more info.] (Apologies to Volker for my tardiness in publishing his article and certainly a big thank you to him for his contribution)

(Volker wrote:

Sunday, January 5. A glorious summer morning, somewhat hazy because of bush fires east of Perth. Forrest Chase was lively with strollers, families with children; the fountains played; food stands sold Crêpe Suzette, Bratwurst with Sauerkraut, various Eastern dishes. Seven of us enjoyed coffee, iced chocolate, bagels with ham and croissants at Bocelli's outdoor café, all accompanied by lighthearted conversation. Couldn't think of a more delightful way to spend an hour or two on a Sunday morning in summer in such good company.

REPORT FROM THE STATE OF HANDSOME MEN

The highlight of this month's Victorian Report is of course the highly successful Queenscliff Frolic which once and for all proved that Victoria is indeed the State of Handsome Men. Although there were no ugly men attending, the Victorians stood out (in more ways than one). Walking along the main street of Queenscliff I noticed attendees drooling over the handsome men parading the streets. It was like walking into a model agency. The 4 days were wonderful, commencing with a meet and greet which included a Murder Mystery game where the murderer merely had to wink at a victim for him to die dramatically. I, as the grim reaper, had to then put a red dot on the victim's forehead. I was kept busy as victim after victim writhed in pain or screamed churlishly. If someone would have had a heart attack, I would have merely put a red dot on his forehead rather than calling for an ambulance. Other activities included a steam train trip to Drysdale, a tour of Fort Queenscliff and a ferry trip to the holiday village of Sorrento, also inhabited by handsome men. The venue for our gathering was in old renovated guesthouse "Whitehall". We had to share bathrooms and showers. Some men quite literally shared showers and came out particularly clean. Other activities included nude massages and "optional clothing" yoga at 6.30am. Because of the time only about 10 attended each session. Being a 'morning person' I attended both sessions. At 1 session 8 guys were nude while the other 2 were fully clothed. The only items missing from their ensemble were hat, gloves and handbag. On behalf of all attendees I must thank our esteemed President Neil for organizing the whole event, including the catering. All contributed to chores, especially in the kitchen, where no fights occurred. Luckily James Packer and David Gyngell were not in attendance. Victorians are now looking forward to our winter weekend at Hall's Gap (no, Hall is not the name of a woman). It is a pretty village within the Grampians mountains.

Birthday greetings for May and June go to: Glen B, Kevin McC, Henk H, Leonard C, Howard L, Terry E, Peter C, Robert M, Roger K, John R, Phil A, Harold A, Norman V, Kevin (FC) W, Lachlan R, and Jeff G.

NEWS FROM QUEENSLAND

Hi Everyone,

Apologies for my tardiness. Well I don't need to tell all of you who attended the Mad Hatter's Tea Party- what a great day it was. Thank you for all contributing to the fun. Fine bone china, cucumber sandwiches and strawberry cream cake were enjoyed by the Queensland aristocracy. Victoria may have a few handsome men, but we have the class!! I've attached some photos and if anyone has any extra or better ones I'd love to have copies.

As I announced on the day, after expenses, we raised $252 which I have donated to Allout.org, which, if you haven't looked at, I would recommend. We had a raffle, won by Les, which raised $110, plus entry fee.

The prize for the best hat went to Allan. I was going to get everyone to vote but as soon as he walked in the door, I knew his Tea Cup Hat was the winner!!! Thanks for the effort people put into their hats. I have included the letter from Allout.org

"Thanks so much for your support of All Out. -It is hugely appreciated! It's great to hear that you and the Country Network were able to raise these funds! We really appreciate your support! The easiest way to donate is to go to the donate page of our website here <https://allout.org/en/actions/donate> and use a credit card or PayPal to donate.

Gifts from individuals like you are what keep us going and power campaigns that can change the world. All Out relies on the contributions of members; we don't take money from governments or corporations, so we can stay independent.

Together we can build a world where no one has to sacrifice their family, freedom, safety or dignity because of who they are or who they love.

Please send our thanks and gratitude to the rest of the Network as well!

Thanks for going All Out, Rachel "

Message Board

The message board is slowly growing into the tool we hoped it would become. It still has a little way to go and so to kick it along further we want even more contributions.

There are some great discussions happening on a range of topics, from the deep and meaningful to the trivial. So please pay a visit to the message board and add your own comments to any discussion or even start your own discussion on any topic you like.

Not all discussions have to be "deep and meaningful". They can be trivial or even just seeing if anyone else would like to join you at a show you're intending to see.

The message board is a very useful networking tool and we encourage all members to use their tool more often.

If you're having trouble accessing the message board, you can try a different browser (eg: google chrome) or contact the webmaster.
